Neighborhood Institute accepting nominations for citizen awards

HUNTINGTON -- Do you know of a Huntington resident who has made a positive impact in their neighborhood?

The Neighborhood Institute of Huntington would like to honor them at an awards ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Monday, June 9, at City Hall. Awards will be given in the following categories: Mentoring youths or guiding youth sports; promoting public safety; promoting community beautification; and being an exceptional leader or volunteer.

Nominations should include the person's name, address, contact information and a brief description of why he or she has been an exemplary citizen.

Nominations can be emailed to Neighborhood Institute President Donna Rumbaugh at plantnerds@gmail.com or mailed to Neighborhood Institute of Huntington, P.O. Box 9291, Huntington, WV 25704. Nomination deadline is May 30.
