Victim Services

A resource guide for survivors of domestic violence, sex crimes, stalking, and crimes against children.

Help. Hope. Healing.

A crime victim has the following rights:

- The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for the victim's dignity and privacy.
- The right to be reasonably protected from the accused offender.
- The right to be notified of court proceedings.
- The right to be present at all public court proceedings related to the offense, unless the court determines that testimony by the victim would be materially affected if the victim heard other testimony at trial.
- The right to confer with an attorney for the Government in the case (Prosecutor).
- The right to restitution.
- The right to information about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment, and release of the offender.
